Specific QAPE inclusions

Please indicate if your QAPE claim includes any of the following

- Remuneration for directors, producers and production staff
- Expenditure related to individuals who worked on the production both in and outside of Australia
- Expenditure related to crew and cast members who worked in Australia on the production for less than two consecutive weeks
- Remuneration for cast or crew members other than by money
- Expenditure related to international travel
- Expenditure related to international freight
- Expenditure incurred while the applicant company was not established in Australia, or was a foreign resident company without a permanent Australian establishment
- Expenditure incurred on producing audio or visual content for the production otherwise than for use in the first copy of the production (additional content)
- Expenditure on publicity and promotional material
- Residuals or non-recoverable advances to be paid to individual cast or crew members (where those individuals' remuneration is QAPE)
- Depreciation of assets

If your claim includes any of the types of expenditure listed above you will need to ensure that this expenditure is clearly identified in your general ledger.

It is recommended that applicants refer to the Glossary for details of eligible expenditure.

Audit

The expenditure statements must be audited by an independent Australian auditor registered as such in accordance with the Corporations Act 2001. 'Independent' means that the auditor must not be an officer, employee or partner of the applicant, or of a related body corporate of the applicant.

Please upload a copy of your audit statement verifying claimed QAPE. If you are unsure as to whether the statement provides the required detail, please have the auditor sign the attached pro-forma.

Please provide an explanation of promotion and publicity expenditure claimed as QAPE

Generally speaking expenditure related to the marketing, publicity and promotion of a film is non-QAPE. However, the legislation provides limited allowances for QAPE claims related to some publicity and promotional expenses. Please refer to 'Marketing' in the Location Offset Glossary.

Please upload any additional documents to support your application and/or substantiate your QAPE claim.

Documents may include:

- production services agreement
- employment contracts
- invoices
- change orders
- letters of engagement
- schedules
- timesheets
- attendance sheet
- rate cards
- statement of relationships
- relevant quotes
- copyright material contracts
- letters of authorisation
- insurance contracts
- hardware/software agreements
- deal memos
- foreign currency calculations

Further documentation may be requested during the assessment process.
