* indicates a required field

When to submit

Applications for a Final Post, Digital and Visual Effects (PDV) Offset Certification can be made at any time.

The PDV Offset operates under Division 376 of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1997.

This Application is made in accordance with Part 3 of the PDV Offset Rules 2018.

Before you begin

In order to apply for a final certificate for the PDV Offset:

- The applicant company must be the company that is carrying out, or is making the arrangements for the carrying out of, all activity in Australia that is necessary for the PDV work on the production.
- The production must be an eligible format.
- The production must commence PDV activity in Australia on or after 1 July 2007.
- Qualifying Australian production expenditure (QAPE) related to PDV activity must be at least:
    - $5 million AUD for productions commencing prior to 1 July 2010; or
    - $500,000 AUD for productions commencing on or after 1 July 2010.
- The production must not have accessed any other Australian Government tax incentives under the Australian Screen Production Incentive (ASPI).
- The applicant company must be an active Australian company, or a foreign company with an Australian permanent residency and an Australian Business Number (ABN).
- The applicant company must not be acting in the capacity of a trustee or a trust.

Before you complete this Application Form please note:

- The PDV Offset Guidelines and Glossary must be read in conjunction with this form, and are available at www.arts.gov.au/funding-and-support/tax-rebates-film-and-television-producers.
- Throughout the application form, the term ‘production’ is used to refer to all eligible formats.
- Towards the end of this application you will have the opportunity to attach all required supporting documentation.
- During the assessment the assessor may seek additional documents.

Confidentiality

Protected Tax Information

Information provided by applicants under Division 376 of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1997 is protected information and is managed by the Department of Infrastructure, Transport, Regional Development, Communications, Sport and the Arts on a strictly sensitive basis in accordance with the provisions of Division 355 of Schedule 1 of the Taxation Administration Act 1953. However, some information may be provided to other bodies to assist in the administration of ASPI or for other purposes as required by law.

These include:

- Application information will be provided to the Film Certification Advisory Board (FCAB) and independent film production consultants contracted by the Department. These parties are bound by Commonwealth Government confidentiality and privacy provisions.
- Limited information, such as the name of the applicant and the production, will be disclosed to Screen Australia for the purposes of determining eligibility.
- Aggregate and non-identifying information may be used by the Commonwealth for the purposes of reviewing the ASPI.
- Where required by law, information collected may be provided to other agencies or departments of the Commonwealth, including the Australian Tax Office.

Privacy Collection Notice

If you provide personal information, then the Department of Infrastructure, Transport, Regional Development, Communications and the Arts will manage that information in accordance with the Privacy Act 1988 and the confidentiality obligations of Division 355 of Schedule 1 of the Taxation Administration Act 1953 and Division 376 of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1997.

We will use your personal information in connection with the assessment and administration of the offset application for which it was provided to us. We may share your information with external advisors assisting us with assessment. Otherwise we will not use or disclose your personal information except as permitted by law.

You are not compelled by law to provide your personal information but we may not be able to consider an offset application without it.

The department will store your personal information securely and the department's privacy policy contains information regarding complaint handling processes and how to access and/or seek correction of personal information held by the Department. This will be the financial year in which the last QAPE item was incurred.

Currency exchange

Was any QAPE incurred in a foreign currency? *
○ Yes ○ No
If you have answered 'Yes', the questions below must be completed for each type of foreign currency.

Please note, official published exchange rates, including the monthly exchange rates, are available from the Reserve Bank of Australia at www.rba.gov.au.

All Production Expenditure and QAPE incurred in foreign currencies must be converted into Australian dollars. For the purposes of applying for the PDV Offset this must be done in two ways:

1. For the purposes of meeting the expenditure threshold, expenditure must be converted using the foreign exchange rate for the day on which the PDV production commenced.

The date PDV production commenced, being the date on which manipulation of audio or visual elements first occurred is: *

Must be a date.

Please complete table below to convert all QAPE incurred in foreign currencies into Australian dollars using the rate of exchange on the day the PDV production commenced in Australia.

This figure will be verified by the assessor in your final report.

Foreign currency	Claimed amount (in foreign currency)	Exchange rate (exchange rate on day PDV production commenced in Australia)	QAPE in AUD
		Must be a number.	Must be a dollar amount.

2. For the purpose of calculating the final QAPE figure upon which the rebate is based, the exchange rate used for expenditure on foreign currency must be averaged across the period in which PDV QAPE was incurred.

Date of first eligible QAPE item is: *

Must be a date.

Date of final eligible QAPE item is: *

Must be a date.

Please complete table below to convert all QAPE incurred in foreign currencies into Australian dollars using the average exchange rate across the PDV QAPE period. This can be the monthly or daily average from the first eligible QAPE date to the final eligible QAPE date. Official published exchange rates, including the monthly exchange rates and daily exchange rates, are available from the Reserve Bank of Australia at www.rba.gov.au.

Please see the PDV Glossary for further details.

Foreign currency	Claimed amount (in foreign currency)	Exchange rate (average exchange rate across PDV QAPE period)	QAPE in AUD
	Must be a dollar amount.	Must be a number.	Must be a dollar amount.

I confirm that the correct exchange rate has been applied to all foreign currency in the general ledger. *

Interested Party Expenditure

Details need to be provided of all companies expected to provide goods / services in making the production that are associated with the applicant or any of its associated entities (within the meaning of section 50AAA of the Corporations Act 2001), along with a brief explanation of the relationship, as well as the nature and value of the goods / services to be provided, including reinvestment arrangements (investment of fees).

It is recommended that applicants refer to the Glossary for description of interested parties and investment of fees, noting particular exclusions that may impact your QAPE claim.

Is there any interested party expenditure to be included? *
○ Yes ○ No

Please upload a breakdown and summary of interested party expenditure. *
Attach a file:

Please include holding company, 'parent' company, subsidiaries or other associated companies, such as those with common directors to the applicant company.

Name of company	Relationship to applicant company	Goods / services to be provided	Projected value in AUD
			Must be a dollar amount.

Copyright expenditure

Please provide details of any expenditure incurred in acquiring Australian held copyright.

Expenditure on acquiring copyright, or a licence for copyright is considered QAPE only where the copyright is held by an Australian resident individual or company and is necessarily related to PDV activity.

It is recommended that applicants refer to the Glossary for further details of Copyright acquisition and licensing.

Is there any copyright expenditure to be included? *
○ Yes ○ No
Please only provide

Please upload all copyright licensing agreements. *

Specific QAPE inclusions

Please indicate if your projected QAPE claim includes any of the following
☐ Remuneration for directors, producers and production staff
☐ Expenditure related to individuals who worked on the production both in and outside of Australia
☐ Expenditure related to crew and cast members who worked in Australia on the production for less than two consecutive weeks
☐ Remuneration for cast or crew members other than by money
☐ Expenditure related to international travel
☐ Expenditure related to international freight
☐ Expenditure incurred while the applicant company was not established in Australia, or was a foreign resident company without a permanent Australian establishment
☐ Expenditure incurred on producing audio or visual content for the production otherwise than for use in the first copy of the production (additional content)
☐ Expenditure on publicity and promotional material
☐ Residuals or non-recoverable advances paid to individual cast or crew members (where those individuals' remuneration is QAPE)
☐ Depreciation of assets

If your claim includes any of the types of expenditure listed above you will need to ensure that this expenditure is clearly identified in your general ledger.

It is recommended that applicants refer to the Glossary for details of eligible expenditure.

Were all costs for directors, producers and production staff exclusive of development costs, and solely attributable to post production, digital and visual effects services provided in Australia for this production? *
○ Yes ○ No

Have all costs for cast or crew working both in and outside Australia been apportioned to claim only the proportion of each individual's remuneration attributable to work done within Australia? *
○ Yes ○ No

Please provide an explanation of promotion and publicity expenditure claimed as QAPE

Generally speaking expenditure related to the marketing, publicity and promotion of a film is non-QAPE. However, the legislation provides limited allowances for QAPE claims related to some publicity and promotional expenses. Please refer to 'Marketing' in the PDV Offset Glossary.

Please upload details of the depreciation of assets *
